A Beauty of an Opening

The response was glowing at Wednesday's opening of "American Beauty," an exhibition of works by America's most important artists on view through June 12 at the Frick Art Museum. Enthralled were Joan Koerner, Ruth and Mike Garfunkel, Janie and Harry Thompson, James Tottis of exhibit lender Detroit Institute of Arts, Steve Webster, Stella and Grant Gerlich, board chair Betsy Watkins with Chuck and the Frick's Tom Smart and director Bill Bodine.

FAME Leaders

Franco Harris and PNC's Joan Gulley co-chaired Thursday's FAME luncheon for 200 at the Duquesne Club, where scholarship students to area independent schools shared reflections on participating in the Fund for Advancement of Minorities Through Education program. Applauding them were honorary chair Fred Fetterolf, Catherine Baker Knoll, Esther Barazzone, board chair Arthur Woods and FAME executive director Lisa Baldwin-Youngblood.

ASSET turns 10

Celebrating 10 years of achieving student success through excellence in teaching was the mission Thursday night at the Senator John Heinz Pittsburgh Regional History Center when ASSET hosted its 10th anniversary dinner. Chair Atilla Molnar, CEO of Bayer, presented guest speaker Mae Jemison, a former NASA astronaut and crew member of the space shuttle Endeavor. Westinghouse received the first ASSET Educational Leadership Award, accepted by Aris Candris. On hand were board chair Harry Goern with Camille, executive director Reeny Davison, Gerald Zahorchak and state Sen. John Pippy.
